

Joseph A. Geoghegan, Jr.Chief Architectural Officer and Principal*

Joe brings more than 30 years of retail architectural experience to his role as Chief Architectural Officer (CAO) of RGLA Solutions. He is a licensed architect in 50 states, a member of the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards and a professional member of the Retail Design Institute and Int'l Council of Shopping Centers. In his role as CAO, Joe oversees the management of all client programs for RGLA and has opened thousands of stores for many of the nations leading Specialty, Department and Large Format store retailers. Joe is also a principal in Robert G. Lyon and Associates, which provides architectural services exclusively to RGLA Solutions through an agreement between the two firms. In addition, he served as VP of the Board of Directors for Seguin Services, Inc., a non-profit agency that provides services to developmentally disabled infants and adults and has been a speaker at Northwestern University's graduate school on Program Management.