

HSW (Public Health, Safety and Welfare) – the content of public protection subjects acceptable for purposes of continuing education are:

- Codes, statutes and administrative governing the practice of architecture
- Environmental issues
- Professional ethics
- State licensing law
- Design proficiency
- Interface with other design disciplines (e.g. planners, consultants, specialist and financiers) other than through normal day-to-day contact.
- Legal aspects of contracts, documents, insurance, bonds, project administration, etc.
- Specialization in preservation, adaptive reuse or building types.
- Construction documents and services.
- Materials and methods
- Mechanical, plumbing, electrical and life safety.
- Structural technology
- Energy efficiency
- Project Administration
- Accessibility issues
- New technical/professional skills