

Mark Hansen has been passionate about architecture his entire life. His reputation and drive made him the ideal partner for what is now Mohagen Hansen.

For over 30 years, Mark has developed efficient spaces in a wide range of industries, including corporate, office/warehouse, dental, and healthcare. Although he enjoys working in many areas, healthcare is his true passion. During the past two decades, Mark has established himself as one of the area leaders in healthcare planning and design. No matter what the project, every detail matters to Mark. His attention to detail and commitment to client relationships ensures every project is a great one.
