

Having refined her design skills for the past decade at the most reputable design firms, Belinda brings a comprehensive skill set and dedicated design focus to O'Kelly Kasprak. With extensive architectural and interior design experience, she prides herself on comprehensive design solutions. Her strong background in the hospitality industry gives her an edge on the guest experience and coordinating fine details into the big picture is one of her strong suits.

Belinda studied architecture at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana and The Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Versailles, France. She is a licensed architect in Illinois, as well as a LEED accredited professional with a specialty in building design and construction. As a member of the American Institute of Architects and Chicago Women in Architecture, Belinda enjoys an active role in the urban development of Chicago.
